

JUNIOR COLLEGE GRADUATE . . . Helen Brodie, of 1504 Amapola avenue, who was graduated from Compton Junior College with the class of winter '48. Miss Brodie, who is majoring in medical social work, will enroll as a junior at UCLA. At the conclusion of two years' study there she will receive her degree as Bachelor of Science. She then plans to do post-graduate work at USC.

Homemaking Course Being Offered At Lomita Flight Strip

Mrs. Alpha Stump of the Consumer Research section of the Los Angeles Better Business Bureau is now instructing a homemaking course at the Recreation hall of the Lomita Flight Strip.

The classes are sponsored by the Torrance YWCA Center in cooperation with the Board of Education.

The series of lectures, to be given each Wednesday night for seven weeks, will include instruction in nutrition, cooking budgeting, flower arranging, party decorations, all phases of interior decorating; special information on women's legal rights and the buying of cosmetics, furs, jewelry, chinaware, silver, bedding, hose, shoes and gloves. She will also discuss cleaning and pest control.

Women and men of Torrance, Lomita, Harbor City and Pueblo are invited to attend. Phone Torrance 1356 for further information.

EPISCOPAL WOMEN TO ATTEND CLASS

Sister Mary Gabriel of the Episcopal Sisterhood of the Holy Nativity will conduct weekly classes every Thursday during Lent at Christ Episcopal church, Redondo Beach.

A simple luncheon will be served at noon following the Eucharist at 11 o'clock. Sister Mary Gabriel's study period will start at 1:00. Her subject will be "Women of the Bible."

The Woman's Auxiliary of the church, sponsoring group, extends a cordial invitation to interested persons.

Mrs. A. L. Hudson, of 20713 Shearer avenue, president of the auxiliary, expresses hope that a group of Torrance friends will attend and renew acquaintance with Sister Mary Gabriel.

SPRING SAFEST SEASON

Spring is the safest season in the accident records, the National Safety Council reports. But before you start thumbing your nose at fate, remember that "the safest season" still claimed about 250 accident victims a day.

Torrance Terrace Garden Club Sets Plant Sale Feb. 28

The home of Mrs. Eleanor Meyers, 1526 W. 213th st., was the meeting place for the Torrance Terrace Garden Club on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Estelle Ewalt, president, conducted the session.

Principal business of the meeting was discussion of plans for the plant sale set for Saturday, Feb. 28, at the entrance to Levy Department Store, when choice plants grown by members, will be offered for sale. Included will be potted plants and bedding flowers and vegetables. To be featured at the sale are Bibergias, fancy rooted chrysanthemums, pansies, carnations and many succulents.

The next club project will be the Second Annual Flower Show to be held in Torrance High School gymnasium, May first and second.

Mrs. Edna Peterson will open her home at 819 Beech ave. for the next club meeting on Wednesday afternoon, March 3.

Lumina Park YWCA Club In Many Activities

The YWCA Club at the Lumina Trailer Park on Western avenue celebrated Valentine's Day Feb. 14 with a family party in the Recreation hall, which was delightfully decorated for the occasion.

The entertainment featured games and music, after which refreshments were served.

The food sale by the club on Feb. 14 at Lomita Meat Market in Lomita, netted $30.00, sum to be applied to payments for a piano recently purchased.

At the group's last meeting on Thursday, Feb. 19, Mrs. Alva Stump of the Consumer's Research section of the Los Angeles Better Business Bureau, began a special homemaking course.

The club activities are sponsored by the Torrance YWCA Center.

Women Residents Of Torrance Area Offered 'Y' Classes

New women residents of Torrance, Lomita, Harbor City and Pueblo are urged to enroll in the various activities now offered by the Torrance YWCA Center.

"Our classes offer an excellent opportunity for newcomers to make friends in the community, while filling leisure time with worthwhile activity," announces Miss Helen Lockwood, "Y" program director.

Classes include keep-fit gym, including part dancing, bowling, arts and crafts, oil painting, ceramics and swimming. There are also special lecture groups and monthly dinner meetings of the Young Adult group.

Phone Torrance 1356 for further information.

HALLDALE CARD PARTY IS OUTSTANDING SUCCESS

The Halldale PTA-sponsored February card party, held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Albert Stavens of 1435 W. 219th st., was most successful.

Prizes were won by Mmes. Art Jensen, J. J. Grimm, Ila Mae Ambach, Clarence Brown, Stanley Goodson and August But.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Evelyn Simery and Mrs. Stavens.

HEED WARNING SIGNS

The National Safety Council warns motorists to heed road signs. An "S" curve can turn laughter into slaughter.

Anniversary Of Wedding Date Is Party Incentive

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Blackburn, of 22417 Denker avenue, on the occasion of their 24th wedding anniversary, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray entertained last week at an attractively appointed dinner in their home, 1456 1/2 W. 220th st. Also present at the dinner party were the celebrants' other children, Charles and Emma Jean Blackburn, of the home address.

Catholic Ladies Card Party Set For This Evening

A decorated candlelight anniversary cake was served at the dessert course. Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn, who were married in Texas, have made their home here during the past 17 years.

dames Morin, Sullivan, Bowen, Obole, Probert, Green, Beahan, Benstead, Dabbs, Lillenthal, and Fredericks.

A door prize will be awarded at 8 o'clock and games of contract and auction bridge pi-nochle and 500 will follow. At the close of play delicious refreshments will be served and regulation prizes awarded. Every one is invited.
